

2016.02.17 Myers teen abuse lie

Peter Myers

56 mins · 🌐

I have just been on Mike Hampton's site - 'Love Knysna' (by the way what a joke - he should actually call it 'Hate Knysna' because of all the hate he engages in) and it appears that he has stopped all comments on his site. What a coward - not only has he refused to debate me on his so called submission to Parliament he has now censored all comments. Hopefully his true nature is slowly being revealed.

His recent appeal for money for a 'child in need' may also be a scam - a way to enrich himself. Anyone out there contemplating contributing by paying into Hampton's bank account - please thoroughly check it out first before you part with your hard earned money

👍 Like

➦ Share

14 people like this.

Sally Lindoorn good on you, peter...do not succumb to bully tactics...ever.

Like · 17 mins

Warren Fleming Not even bothered to read the comments, I have met you only once. In the past 24 hours the posts you have made are no different to what you accuse him of. Correct me are you not a ward councilor in the municipality? I remember being there the day you were placed in office. How does professionalism rank in what you do? Airing all of this on Facebook instead of facing it and dealing with these so called issues with Mike? Facebook is a social platform, surely all this time you spend blabbing about all of this is tax payers time, go fix some potholes or do some good for the town. It does not matter who is wrong or right, it matters what you actually do!!! I can tell you the municipality alone nearly destroyed our company last year and not a single one of you folk that side actually gave a damn. However one man with a point on a flippen social media post can waste how much time where you could ACTUALLY BEING DOING YOUR JOB INSTEAD OF ACTING LIKE A BORED HOUSEWIFE makes attention to your cause. What cause is that??? being right or making a difference. People complain about Zuma, i see Zuma as a disease, and one that is infected right here. Fix things, do your job that we as the people pay you for, stop complaining and take praise for the acts that you might, and maybe, just maybe might get done. But whatever, if you feel the time you spend on Facebook is what people care about, then so be it. Just another sign of why the Knysna area was actually better when Elanor was mayor under the ANC...

Unlike 👍 5 · 9 hrs

Mark Allan Are we talking about the same person here? The one who has spent the last five years dragging the name Knysna through the mud in Google's search results? You are taking issue with the fact that some people in this town are starting to ask questions and to kick back? Warren Fleming wake up. Figure out that Knysna is bigger than Gray Street. You have changed the name of your business half a dozen times. Maybe that has something to do with the problems you are experiencing. You might also question how clever it is to associate your business with Hamptons tired, tatty and very nasty brand.

Like 👍 2 · 7 hrs · Edited

Candace Myers Warren Fleming - It saddens me to read this. I understand more and more why people of caliber don't do this job. It's easy to sit there and criticize people who are putting themselves out there, doing far more than the 'job spec' entails. The endless abuse and insulting comments, similar to yours, the long hours, the ability to deal with a constant stream of the most wide ranging problems with a minimal budget is beyond what any individual should have to deal with. Maybe you should consider why Peter has to resort to dealing with Mike on Facebook. It really isn't because he doesn't have a life. I take exception to your insults. Go and chat to Peter before you rant, and find out how you can be part of the solution rather than adding to the fire.

Like 6 · 5 hrs

Martin Young I agree Candace. Hampton has to be engaged using his own medium and his own methods, as I intend to do. Direct engagement has not worked. Fleming's attack here is uncalled for and lacks insight.

Like 3 · 5 hrs

Julie Seton Warren I think your statement is ill considered. Hampton has singlehandedly damaged brand knysna with drivel for years. Take note before you insult Cllr Myers that his interaction on social media has been well outside of "normal" working hours, not that any councillor is ever off duty.

Like 3 · 5 hrs

Warren Fleming Mark Allan Our business name has changed names once since 1996 and has always supported the community etc etc etc. Half a dozen times, I am not following you? So now we are associates? by agreeing that there is serious problems in our town?

Like 2 · 3 hrs

Mark Allan What are those problems Warren? That is besides Mike Hampton.

Julie Seton What has this johnny come lately actually contributed to our town

Like 3 · 16 February at 21:21

Mark Beard Zilch. Nothing. Nada.

Like 1 · 16 February at 23:02

Irma McKinlay And now what?? What will it take to put an end to this situation? Why & how is he so convinced he has a case?? What about the average voter "out there"?? This fight/ debat/ conversation/ argument is so wrong & counter-productive for the sustainable wel... See more

Like 3 · 16 February at 23:21

Mark Allan Watch his Facebook page. Instead of exposing himself to a debate he can't win, he is befriending yet another teenage girl and using it to pern and conscientious member of the Esme Edge and Paul Zeman like this.

Like 2 · 17 February at 04:49

David Ryan Katz We should chase that piece of scum away from Knysna. He's a coward. He isn't exposing anything, ever. He's a delusional detriment to whatever he touches or talks about.

Like 2 · 17 February at 06:39

Penelope Houreld Waste of space! he has reached his sell by date!

Like · 17 February at 15:18

Louise Hart Will not hold my breath !

Like · 17 February at 15:51