

DA ASSOCIATE, MARK ALLAN'S OBSESSIVE PROPAGANDA IN TRYING TO FALSELY ASSOCIATE ACTIVIST MIKE HAMPTON WITH MISSING CHILD, LIYEMA BALENI.

Each of these were separate comments, made randomly beneath unrelated topics. They are not the sum total of comments made.

Mark Allan Unhealthy obsession? Let me explain unhealthy to you. Two days before the Knysna-Plett Herald reported Liyema Baleni missing, Hampton made a very odd post on the Love Knysna page. He then carried that article as well as another about a local gangsters body being found in a burnt out car on the Prince Alfred pass road. What I have been wanting to ask him for so long, is why I couldn't find those posts when I went to look at them a few days later. The first one worried me. It was out of place, it was odd. "I've made love to darkness, made reality disappear, kissed fantasy so light would reappear". The timing was odd. The fact that all three disappeared at the same time, was odd. Was there a connection? This is the question I wanted to ask him in court. This is the question he does not want to answer. Now that is unhealthy. Don't you think so Paul Sharp?

Mark Allan Love Knysna 1 September 2014 · 2.51am: I've made love to darkness, made reality disappear, kissed fantasy so light would reappear. That is the post you made two days before KPH reported Liyema missing, two days after she was last seen. I couldn't find it when I checked again ten days later. Did you delete it? If so why? The posts about her disappearance and the burnt out car had also "disappeared". Those are facts Mike Hampton.

Mark Allan And did you get an answer? Would you care to share it Marge Canning? Because the questions I am asking also involve a young girl. But this one disappeared. Just like the posts on his blog which disappeared. Did he explain why?

Mark Allan Why do you have a judgement for R35k for defamation against you? Why do you not answer the question about the three posts that disappeared off your Facebook page? Why did you choose not to meet me in court? Why do you trawl these posts every single day? You huff, you puff, you twist, turn and distort. You are running as fast as you can from what you call your dark side? What is your dark side Mike Hampton? Would you not care to explain how you "made love to darkness"? And more importantly why that post dropped off your page? [reference to court case]

Mark Allan: That post I am questioning was made two days prior to the Knysna-Plett Herald article and two days after Liyema's disappearance. It was not part of a weather report and he knows it. It was odd at the time and got odder still. Let me repeat myself. The Knysna-Plett Herald's article about the girls disappearance appeared on Love Knysna a few days after it was published, as did the article about the burnt out vehicle being found with a body in it. And being one of his most attentive followers, bells started ringing. But when I went back to check all three had been removed. Only Mike Hampton knows why.

Mark Allan Try to understand that two days before the Knysna-Plett Herald reported Liyema Baleni missing, Hampton made that very odd post on the Love Knysna page. He then carried that article as well as another about a local gangsters body being found in a burnt out car on the Prince Alfred pass road. What I have been wanting to ask him for so long, is why I couldn't find those posts when I went to look at them a few days later. The first one worried me. It was out of place, it was odd. The timing was odd. The fact that all three disappeared at the same time, was odder still. Was there a connection? This is the question I wanted to ask him in court. This is the question he does not want to answer. And here are a few questions for you Lauren Donson. Has Liyema Baleni been found? Do we, "the community" know what happened? If she has been found, no problem. I apologise for bothering you. But if she hasn't been found may I suggest you ask Hampton whether he deleted those posts from the Love Knysna page and more importantly why. I tried to get him into court so I could ask him face to face. But he declined the invitation. Why?

Mark Allan Liyema Baleni existed, the question is whether she still does and whether you are concerned or not. That is something that has really bothered me for close on two years now. But what bothers me even more is that the "Knysna community" for one reason or another does not feel comfortable with the questions they should be asking. Why?

Lauren Donson Who is more racist mark or mike or blacks?

Mark Allan I am talking about a nine year old child. You talk about black poenanie. It must you. What the hell has racism to do with the fact that three posts were removed from Hamptons Facebook page and the communities responsibility to keep their children safe? Man oh man this is heavy going!

Mark Allan: He won't engage with me. He refused to meet me in court. The question is why? I now have a judgement against him. Why did he let it go? Does it have anything to do with the very odd post he made on Facebook so long ago? Does it have anything to do with the fact that this and two other posts were removed from his profile and he is terrified of explaining why?

Mark Allan: Negative is what he does. If you can be bothered to read it, he records it all. Years and years of it. That is except why he removed the story about the disappearance of nine year old Liyema Baleni which he tries to write off as a smear campaign orchestrated by the DA. Just bullshit, smoke, mirrors and a lot of nasty stuff.

Mark Allan: This is the same man who has consistently failed to explain why he removed a post about a missing nine year old child from these pages. How do you and everyone put up with it? How dare he!

Mark Allan: And I still want to know why he removed that post about Liyema Baleni's disappearance from the Love Knysna page. Knysna is a nasty little town with many secrets to hide.

Mark Allan: What is funny is how you all come out to play at the same time. Plenty of backslapping and ROFL at each others jokes. Trying to ignore the fact that someone committed a premeditated murder while you stood idly by. Trying to ignore the fact that little nine year old girl is still missing. What was the story no one wants to tell. Why did Hampton remove those three posts? Who is he trying to protect?

Mark Allan: [Hampton] went back two years and diligently reported most of the comments I have made about the Liyema Baleni posts he made. Facebook considered them to be a little too close to the bone and has deleted them.
