

Subject: Re: Twitter banning follow-up
From: Love Knysna - Mike <mike@loveknysna.com>
Date: 2016/09/20, 4:57 PM
To: Christopher Bezuidenhoudt <cbezuidenhoudt@knysna.gov.za>

As you have still failed to respond regarding who banned me on Twitter, the blame is on you as Communications Manager.

As you still hold that position, you must also take responsibility for the current banning of me on Knysna Municipality's Facebook.

If you disagree, then explain who did.

Note that i keep these emails as a follow-up for Parliament. If we're both there, i will insist that you answer all questions regarding your department. Shirking responsibility should never be an option for a public servant.

On 06/09/2016 13:58, Love Knysna - Mike wrote:

It's terrible that you are resorting to lying.

You claimed it wasn't you and promised to find out.

You haven't told me who was responsible to it's naturally impossible for you to have answered.

This is not an issue i'm going to let go. You are responsible until you prove otherwise. I will take you personally to court if i have to.

On 06/09/2016 13:05, Christopher Bezuidenhoudt wrote:

Mike, with respect, this question has been asked and answered.

>>>

From: Love Knysna - Mike <mike@loveknysna.com>
To: KM Communications - Christopher Bezuidenhoudt <cbezuidenhoudt@knysna.gov.za>
Date: 06/09/2016 11:51
Subject: Twitter banning follow-up

>

You told me on Friday that you would find out who banned me on Twitter. Why haven't you?

--

Mike Hampton

Knysna, the Prettiest Town in South Africa

Our Facebook - facebook.com/loveknysna

Subscribe to Love Knysna! - loveknysna.com

Love Our Town by Protecting Her - knysnakeep.org

Help Knysna by Volunteering - loveknysnaprojects.co.za

Order a website or learn how to design them - knysnawebsitedesign.co.za

Websites from R1000 / Website Design Course R3000 for 2 students (R1500 each)