When will people realize associating with or supporting Hampton rubs off on them???

This is 'brand damage by association' to colossal levels.

And it is time to pay for that association. His supporters should deservedly pay an increasing share of the cost of the damage he does to Knysna.

This is an entirely democratic process whereby the majority rules.

Paul Sharp This process you derive from the "entirely democratic" society, where majority rules, would be made up of the white liberal folk that frequent this website?

Protecting Brand Knysna Which web site? Facebook? White liberal folk? Silly comment.

Protecting Brand Knysna Paul Sharp, Richard Sharp...and all the other "sharps"...not the sharpest tool in the shed. Sadly, you're nothing more than a troll using an alias.

Sorry Amanda/Mike (or what-ever you like to be known as) you can fool some of the people all the time, and all the people some of the time...etc.

Protecting Brand Knysna No friends 'Paul'? Really? Going to be fewer shortly - even those you had are about to see the light

Like Reply · 36 mins

Paul Sharp It's always good to see the light. You should give it a try sometime. I only allow friends to see any details on my FB page and you mark Allen, are not one of them.

Do you understand how patently obvious you are when you, as PKB talk to Mark Allen? It's so glaringly obvious that my ten year old could tell. It's bizarre that you think you have anyone at all hoodwinked. Silly man.

Protecting Brand Knysna Of course we've met. Don't you know that I am the (self-appointed) Queen of Knysna. Sadly, the UFO landing in Knysna on the 21/02/2012 went without me, as they couldn't find any intelligent life here, for the simple "fact" that I was popping my "happy pills" whilst writing my sequel to my best-seller book "How to be Happy"!!!

BTW, look how happy I am in this pic!

Protecting Brand Knysna Oh no, this pic was taken whilst Mike Hampton and Amanda Farrow were enjoying "sweet-nothings pillow-talks" whilst discussing their "onboard the UFO acceptance speech"!!!!

 Protecting Brand Knysna He he he he.....far out! So, Amanda Forrow, the lady who has been declared persona non grata in every radio station in the land, who was allegedly stood up by Martin Bailey for a more attractive, slimmer and intelligent specimen, who has run out of people to con in Knysna, not to mention the alleged bilking of The Turbine Hotel a few years back.

She and "Wicked Mike" have had such a cozy relationship all these years.....hatching plans on who to destroy next.

The "truth" she claims!!! Ha ha ha, now that is so funny. Only people with two (or less) brain cell(s) would ever consider any validity in her "truth".....but then again, she is an ardent "Conspiracy Theorist"!!!!

Mark Allan You two know each other by any chance? One just can't tell these days. Would love to chat to her ten year old. Must be very perceptive. Would suspect more sensible as well. Does she have a ten year old? Or is that more of the same?

Protecting Brand Knysna Does she have a ten year old? Nope! Like the Black Widow Spider, she kills anything after mating with her, although anyone stupid enough to attempt "gatte-jag" should lie with the consequences thereof!!! Thankfully the gene-pool self-regulates (in this... See more

Melodie Kingma I know Amanda Farrow and it saddens me to see the utter drivel you write about her - it appears to come from a very bitter and nasty person. You are doing more damage to Knysna than anyone could imagine - if this is how the 'locals' carry on I am not surprised people prefer to spend their money further south. I suggest you change the name of this page or write the defamatory statements you make on a page under your own name. Why do you hide behind the name of Protecting Brand Knysna when it appears you are hell bent on damaging Knysna and the people who reside there. Why does this page not have an identifiable administrator? By chance I found this page - and read quite a few posts going back over the past month etc - what a vindictive administrator this page has - someone obviously with a chip on his/her shoulder - why do you spend so much time debating the negative when you would like the public to believe your intention is to protect brand Knysna? I personally think you are a very lonely person desperate for attention and company and the only way you can have some human interaction is by this fb page as I doubt anyone would want to spend any time in your presence. It is a reflection on what a dissatisfied, disgrunteled person you are. A very sad unhappy pensioner by the sounds of it - not much mental integrity and definitely on a downward slope of misery. What a sad state of affairs in such a beautiful town to have a person like yourself tarnish Knysna. And by the way I know Amanda to be a cheerful and very happy person. Amanda certainly is a far better ambassador for Knysna than this facebook page administrator could ever be! SHAME ON YOU!!

Patrick Soddoff Hear Hear Melodie. I've been involved in brand development and awareness for 30 years or so, I don't think that I could have developed a more devastating blow to any brand than this Protecting Brand Knysna site.

It is breathtakingly appalling and even more so when you realise who frequents the place. The admin should rightly hang his/her head in shame.

Protecting Brand Knysna Melodie Kingma this page is for one purpose only - to counter the damage Hampton and his supporters do to Knysna's brand. There are several administrators. It is unpleasant, but necessary. There is no alternative in dealing with a sociopath. We've looked. We've tried. This is the only way. If you google dealing with narcissists and sociopaths you will see this to be the common recommendation by experts. Narcissists are incapable of taking advice or guidance towards more fruitful and profitable means of exchange. This is the only alternative to more traditional methods of dealing with unwanted individuals which involve criminal intent, threats and bodily harm, and which is how Durban got 'rid' of Hampton. He has a track record. That route is reprehensible. This is the only ethical alternative, to call him on his bluffs and to expose his supporters and their motives.
