

Baden Hall Good piece of written there, Andrew!

Mugabe, Hitler, Stalin, and many other if their ilk believed that what they were doing was "right" and had the unequivocal support of the "masses". History has judged them accordingly. This person will be no different, especially after we survey the ruinous surroundings of Knysna once he has departed.

Personally, I don't believe he will depart for the simple reason that no other community would dare want him in their midst, whilst he does not have two brass-farthings to rub together to hitch a ride from one end of town to the other, let alone to another town altogether!

Heralding from Queensborough, KZN, after his "hasty exit" that town was left battered and bruised, well at least a certain segment of the younger set were left battered and bruised, huge inferences can be drawn from his writings, and even more, from the lack of content within his writings! As he has zero credence in any persuasion, he requires the use of a pen (in this case computer) to "paint pretty pictures" to project a persona that is not him!

A person is judged by the company he keeps.....well, Amanda Farrow (together with all her numerous aliases) being one such supporter, as well as.....er.....er.....er.....can't think of any one else at this moment! ~~~That is damning in itself, I guess~~~~

Mark Allan Angie it will never happen with the man in black scuttling about in the shadows. Who in their right mind wants him on their case? Is it any wonder that the only time one can get access to Lauren Waring's office is when she is not there?

Kevin Grinaker What is one of the multitude of massive differences between Andrew Wilson and Mr Hampton (Mike is far too kind sounding)? Humility. While Andrew has lambasted this person in his letter in general, he has also congratulated Hampton on some good work done. Hampton is incapable of doing this, and that is what makes him so dangerous to this town.

Mark Allan Andrew I asked that man in black that same question three or four years ago. I asked him to spell out what he would do and it got me crossed off the talk to list and ranking on the bad people list. I am afraid I consider that term bad people to be incredibly creepy. And I share Kevin's view, I do not think he has a long term contribution to make.
