Patrick Soddoff If it is an April Fool's Joke.... it's in awful taste... I sure hope it's not. Midday is the truth hour.

Mike Hampton It is a joke with good reasoning which will be explained next week.

Patrick Soddoff If, on the other hand, it is a joke, it's no wonder he has such bad press.

Wendy Dewberry I suggest no more April fools jokes from you Mike ...

Patrick Soddoff Well done Mike. This is a foolproof way to diminish your support base. Piss them off. For "good reason?" Good luck with that in the future.

Mike Hampton Owing to you both being people i respect, i blogged my explanation now as opposed to next week, as was originally intended. I rushed it as most readers will already be leaving work but i hope that's sufficient to replace a smack with a handshake next time i bump into you 😊 - ://www.knysnakeep.org/my-april-fools-day-fight-their...

Julie Seton Start understanding how you have all been duped

Wendy Dewberry Jules...our understanding of the illness within the KM is not through Mike..there is not a duping going on. Please do not make the error of assuming that this is an issue of one person pulling the wool over peoples eyes on this end. No one who supports Mike believes what we believe because of what he says. If you check our demographic you would see that we are not uneducated either. We beleive what he fights for because we have seen this for ourselves and in fact..in law..the public has a right to transparency. He is just the one with nothing to lose..the one who can come against the impunitable KM without threat to child and dollar. On the other hand..well... just heed your own advice my dear sister. XXX

Julie Seton We need to talk there is nothing factual about libelous comments and even the high court has agreed with us. You know Es, the awesome womam I married who has not stolen 1 cent but has been accused of singlehandedly destroying knysna to the extent the libelous schmuck put her face on facebook inviting over quarter of a million people to buy into, thus ergo destroying her with NO FOUNDATION. The high court and mag court agreed re defamation and harassment. Are you really sure you want to go here and possibly you need to tell us why you agree with the completely unfounded allegation that Esme should be jailed, that i am committing misconduct, that the mayor is evil, that lauren is evil you have a mind I respect start using it judiciously and weigh up whether there is any merit to the allegations. I was really disturbed last week when I asked someone if they thought there was something amiss with tourism and the answer was yes when pressed the only reason was persistent blogging by one individual. Knysna is being ruined you can make a difference chose wisely or live with the consequences

Julie Seton Your call Wendy I have the proof and want you to make an informed decision

Like · Reply ·  1 · 1 hr

Mike Hampton If Seton had proof, she would have posted it on her Knysna Knews or Protecting Brand Knysna a long time ago. Instead, again, she uses too many words to make up sentences without facts... and then furthers that with an unsubstantiated example. Please note that she is introducing her spouse onto my page. I have not mentioned her. If there ever was this coffee meeting, i'd gladly join if invited. But it's unfair to put Wendy or any commentator on the spot. They are not the players in this messy affair. If Seton wants to debate facts, i'm happy to do so, just her, her spouse and me, in a public meeting in town central. We can sign disclaimers so that no court cases are affected. That way everyone can make up their minds about what is true or isn't. Until then, it's best if she removes herself and her commenting from the internet.

Wendy Dewberry Mike I can talk to who I want. I am robust and put-on-the-spot-able. If you want to shut Julie Seton up I'm afraid you will be hoist on your own petard. If you want freedom..you got to give it, brother.

Patrick Soddoff I reckon claims as as who is duping who are a little premature, there is still a lot of unwinding to do here. When Parliament reconvenes, comes to a decision, and expresses that decision, then, and only then, could we begin to make an informed decision as to who has been duping who.

Esme Edge has hardly been daubed with the claim that she "has been accused of single handedly destroying knysna". Not even by a long shot. That statement smacks of calculated manipulation of the highest order. MANY have been accused, not Esme alone.

And for an advocate, personally involved with many of these cases, to be hurling cheap shots like "libellous schmuck" on a publicly accessible website, invites all kinds of retribution not worthy of someone in control.

These "revelations" by Hampton are not at all without foundation, not by a long shot. Many responsible, contributing citizens would readily agree that Hampton's assertions to the Parliament sitting have, at the very least, some merit, and Seton's protestations do not sound like those of someone who is confident of her position to normal, rational, suspicious human beings.

The magistrates court is still to decide between Hampton and Seton at a future date. To claim victory in this case is disingenuous, at the very least.

Seton's advice to Wendy Dewberry to "start using her mind judiciously" is basically saying; If you don't agree with us, then your mind is not being applied. The mere fact that Seton is publicly airing the washing gives rise to the very important question; Is she protesting too much?
