Mystukkie Goeters Only in a culture where there is violence, will people greet eachother, with "Peace". wanting Peace, implies that there is no-, or there exist a lack of peace... Congrats.

Chris Gould Martin Young this has got to be the most embarrassingly smug and self-righteous post I have seen this year. Don't you understand how awful this looks? We all get it. You're not a racist. Yay!!! Most of us don't feel a need to sign a paper saying this. And then take a selfie of ourselves holding the paper. And then post said selfie on our facebook page. And then, for God's sakes, crudely imply that anyone who hasn't signed said pledge is a racist! Again, I ask you Martin, have you lost it completely?
